Mu Phi Epsilon Foundation

In 1963 the Foundation was incorporated as a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization to receive contributions and administer grants and scholarships for Mu Phi Epsilon Fraternity members. The Foundation also gives a variety of philanthropic gifts for community music schools.

The Mu Phi Epsilon Foundation is administered by a volunteer board of directors, who determine the type and level of giving and perform administrative functions.

Funding for the Foundation comes from members of the Fraternity, donors and other supporters of the arts.

Your contributions determine the Foundation's ability to support ongoing and special projects.

INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION & ARTISTS CONCERTS

Yukiko Sekino,
Competition Winner, 2011

The Mu Phi Epsilon International Competition, founded in 1964 by concert pianist Claudette Sorel, is a major project of the Mu Phi Epsilon Foundation. The competition is open to outstanding young artist members of Mu Phi Epsilon who are ready to pursue performance careers. The winners obtain valuable performing experience during the years between professional study and concert careers. Artist winners also perform community service concerts, reflecting the Foundation's commitment to music outreach. The competition is held triennially, preceding the Mu Phi Epsilon International Convention.

Current information is available from the Competition Chairman or at the website: mpefoundation.org
